Welcome

THANK YOU for visiting 3duffs.com. This site is dedicated to the research of the genealogy and ancestry of myself and my wife's family. With this site, I hope to make new connections with other family members who may have information to share, while maybe providing them with an enjoyable platform to exchange this information. As with most genealogical sites, this one will always be a work in progress and sourced corrections are encouraged.

PRIVACY - Every attempt has been made to protect the privacy of the living. The information in the database is based on reported birth and death dates. If some of this information is missing or incorrect it is possible for some living data to slip through to the web. If you see any such name, please inform me and I will mark them as living.

REGISTRATION - If you want to see info about your living relatives or others then you can register for a user name and password. In the "Notes or Comments" section of the registration form, please put your direct relation to an individual in the database. After reviewing your info, I will make a determination of your access rights and send you an email to authorize access.

This Day in History

The Great Chicago Fire (1871)

The Great Chicago Fire was a conflagration that burned for more than two days and destroyed about four square miles of the city. It killed hundreds of people, left 90,000 homeless, and destroyed some $200 million worth of property. Originally composed of mostly wooden structures, the city was rebuilt with stone and steel and became a center of industry. According to early accounts of the disaster, the blaze began in a barn owned by Patrick and Catherine O'Leary. What supposedly caused the fire? More... Discuss
